

The Dating Crash Course (Don't Be Alone For the Holidays Edition)

Make This the Last Holidays and New Years You'll Ever Be Alone

If you are feeling lonely, lost, or frustrated, fear no more, we will help you.

The coaches at Happy Sexy You want you to get out and date again and we're going to help you do exactly that this December 12th and 13th, 2009 (next weekend) with the...

What Happens in the Dating Crash Course?

How much do you think your dating and love life will improve if you had a coach mentor you every step of the way; from discovering what you want in a relationship to dating men on your terms?

Now, how much will you learn from having two coaches? Would you get double the results?

What we have for you over the December 12th and 13th weekend are six coaches, who will speak to you about a specific area of dating and guide you through a process to make your dating dreams a reality.

The Agenda

Your main coaches and host for the weekend are Nicole Corrado and Agatha Kasprzak. They will be your friends and partners throughout the weekend.

Saturday, December 12th 11:00am to 4:30pm

Saturday morning starting with introductions and a discussion about your wants and why it's so hard to date in Vancouver.

Then Ronald Lee lead everyone through a self discovery session where you become aware of who you are and your goals for dating and relationships. He will help you discover your non-negotiables and understand more about yourself.

He will be followed by Vincent Ng who will use concepts and exercises to teach you how to converse with men, as well as teach you how to flirt and maintain sexual chemistry.

Then, Ronald Lee will return, joined by Gurpreet Chahil, and together they will share what men want and expect from women for dating and relationships. This will be your chance to get the real answers about men from the source.

We will finish from the classroom for the day at 4:30pm, where you are welcome to take a break or join your fellow classmates for dinner.

Saturday, December 12th 7:30pm to 10:30pm

That same evening, everyone will meet in Yaletown at 7:30pm for drinks, conversation and people watching. We'll observe the body language of people at various lounges and, if you are willing, we'll have you socialize with men and give you specific feedback on how it went and what you can do to improve your interactions with them.

Sunday, December 13th 12:30pm to 4:30pm

The next morning, you will reconvene at 12:30 and Agatha and Nicole will give you feedback on what they observed the night before.

Agatha will spend the majority of the day talking about the dating process, from the theory to methods and techniques about dating, how to get a date, how to prepare for a date, what to do during your date and the follow up.

You'll learn both the in's & out's and the do's & don'ts of dating, things to keep in mind from now on for future dates.

Last, but not least, Giovanni Amenta will end the Dating Crash Course by talking about your style, image, and presentation. He'll not only talk about what to wear on your dates, he'll also share his insights on how women can flirt better, from his perspective as a gay (top) image consultant in the city, who's had this conversation with women many times over.
